Before the Court is the Joint Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (Doc. 154). The Court certified two settlement classes under Fed R. Civ. P. 23(b)(1) on July 16, 2012 (Doc. 142). On the same day, the Court preliminarily approved the settlement, approving the form of Settlement Notice and directing the manner of delivery and distribution thereof, and scheduling a hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) (Doc. 143). The Court entered an order on August 28, 2012, modifying an overbreadth in the original class definitions that came to light during the notice period (Doc. 148). The Court received declarations attesting to the delivery and distribution of the Settlement Notice in accordance with the Preliminary Order (Doc. 155-1). The Court held a Fairness Hearing on November 2, 2012, to (i) determine finally whether this action satisfies the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(1); (ii) consider the fairness of the settlement, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, and determine whether to enter this Final Order approving the settlement; and (iii) determine whether the proposed allocation of the settlement fund is fair and reasonable and should be approved. The form and methods of notifying the Classes of the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement Agreement met the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, any other applicable law, and due process, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto.

3. The settlement, as amended orally at the November 2, 2012, hearing to change § 10.1.3 to read in its entirety:
